Privacy Policy

Last Updated: 13 Sep 2026

We respect the privacy of all participants and are committed to protecting their personal information. This Privacy Policy explains what information we collect, how we use it, how we protect it, and the circumstances under which it may be shared.

1. Information We Collect

When participants register for or participate in the Next Gen Buildathon, we may collect the following information:

- Full name
- Email address
- Phone number
- College/institution name
- Course, branch, or academic details
- Team and registration details
- Payment and transaction information, where applicable
- Other information voluntarily provided during registration or participation

2. How We Use Your Information

The information collected may be used for the following purposes:

- To process and manage participant registrations
- To communicate important information regarding the Buildathon
- To verify participant and team details
- To shortlist participants or teams, where applicable
- To process registration fees or other event-related payments
- To provide event-related announcements, schedules, instructions, and updates
- To manage participation and event activities
- To improve the organization and experience of the Buildathon
- To comply with applicable legal or administrative requirements

3. Sharing of Information

We do not sell or rent participants' personal information.

Participant information may be shared only when necessary for conducting the Buildathon, such as with authorized event organizers, service providers, payment processors, technology/hosting providers, or other authorized partners involved in organizing and managing the event.

We will take reasonable steps to ensure that such information is handled appropriately.

4. Data Security

We take reasonable administrative, technical, and organizational measures to protect participants' personal information against unauthorized access, misuse, loss, alteration, or disclosure.

However, no method of storing or transmitting information over the internet can be guaranteed to be completely secure.

5. Data Retention

We may retain participant information for as long as reasonably necessary to fulfil the purposes described in this Privacy Policy, including registration, event administration, communication, record-keeping, and compliance with applicable requirements.

6. Participant Rights

Participants may contact the Next Gen Buildathon organizers regarding their personal information, including requests to review, correct, or update inaccurate information, subject to applicable requirements and practical limitations.

7. Third-Party Services

The Buildathon website or registration process may use third-party services for purposes such as payment processing, hosting, communication, analytics, or other event-related functions. These services may process information according to their own privacy policies and terms.

8. Changes to This Privacy Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time to reflect changes in the Buildathon, our practices, or applicable requirements. Any significant changes will be communicated through the website or other appropriate channels.

9. Contact Us

If you have any questions, concerns, or requests regarding this Privacy Policy or the handling of your personal information, please contact the Next Gen Buildathon organizing team at:

Email: themindmeshvvce@gmail.com

10. Participant Acknowledgement

By registering for or participating in the Next Gen Buildathon, participants acknowledge that they have read and understood this Privacy Policy and agree to the collection, use, storage, and handling of their personal information as described above.
